

Biography for Brad Poston

Brad Poston was born in North Carolina in 1983 but grew up in Chattanooga, Tennessee. He graduated from the Chattanooga Southeast Tennessee Home Education Association (CSTHEA) in 2001 and received a Bachelor of Arts degree in History from Bryan College in 2005. Before coming to Unity, he worked at Summit Ministries where he learned about Christian leadership as well as the ability to explain and defend the Biblical Worldview.

His mission in life is to train and equip Christian students to make a difference for Christ in the world to the glory of God by learning how to translate their love for Christ into action in all of the spheres of life. Brad enjoys science fiction, medieval fantasy epics, video games, movies, political and economic policy debates, and most things related to history. It is his professed belief that it would be a better world if people had swords instead of guns.

Brad currently resides in Rome, Georgia where he has completed his fifth year as a teacher of history and the Bible at Unity Christian School. He has been married to the love of his life, Rachel, for almost two years. This coming September Brad and Rachel will be welcoming a daughter, Makayla Grace, into their family.
