

Dear Parents,

Hello! My name is Angie Edwards, and I am going to be your child's PreK teacher for the 2011-2012 school year. My classroom aide, Mrs. Brenda Proctor, will also be working with your child. We are both so excited about the upcoming school year and look forward to getting to meet our newest students and their families!

I wanted to take a moment to tell you a little about myself. This will be my fifth year teaching PreK-4 at Unity Christian School...the BEST school on earth!!! Prior to teaching at Unity I was a stay-at-home mom. I did this for 5 years after leaving the teaching profession and my job as kindergarten teacher for the Calhoun City Schools, where I taught for 3 years.

I am married to Matt, a firefighter with the Cobb County Fire Department and owner of Window Works. Matt and I have three children: Reagan (9yrs), Abigail (7yrs), and Josie (2 ½ yrs). My family and I attend Spring Creek Baptist Church where we help out with Sunday School, AWANAS, and Upward Basketball, as well as other ministries of the church.

Again, I am SO EXCITED to start out a new year, and I am very thankful that God has chosen me to be a part of Unity. I can't imagine being anywhere else! Please join me in praying for a productive and successful year ahead. I know that God has many wonderful things in store for us!

Blessings,

Mrs. Edwards
