

Renee Fuller

Graduate of Coosa High School and Berry College (1978, BA English; 1981, BA Music)
Born and raised in Rome, Georgia

Hi,

I'm so blessed to be a teacher at Unity Christian School. 2011-2012 will be my ninth year here. Before coming to UCS, I was home schooling my children. Noah was UCS's first graduate in 2007, and Alison was part of the first graduating class in 2008. Noah has completed an associate's degree at Georgia Highlands, and Alison is currently working at Disney World in their college program.

My husband Alan and I met when we both lived in Atlanta. Although we have friends in common through his time at Shorter College, we never met until we were both singing in the same opera company in 1985. He is the chaplain for Heyman Hospice Care at Floyd Medical Center. In the past Alan has been a Southern Baptist pastor. At present Alan, Noah, and I attend Salem Reformed Church in Rome.

For fun I like to read, listen to music, and watch old movies. I've been a Star Trek fan since I was in 8th grade. My favorite thing to do is sing. I am a member of the Three Rivers Singers, and we perform classical music.

Teaching Omnibus (literature, history, and Bible combination) is so much fun for me. We get to really dig into God's word and see how it relates to many aspects of our daily lives. I hope you enjoy it. I also teach Language class. My favorite part of it is grammar. I really miss diagramming sentences since we don't teach that anymore.

I look forward to having you in my class and getting to know you better.

Your sister in Christ,

Renee Fuller

Below you will see a photo of my family taken at the 2007 Junior/Senior Formal. My husband and son were both wearing tuxedos; I had to have a picture.

